

WORK SHEET – EXERCISE 8C

Situations for role plays

Here are some situations you can use as topics for role plays or sketches. Child A plays the role of the one who is feeling sad and discouraged and B helps them. C plays the role of the observer, like a director or a camera. They are not allowed to speak during the role play. Afterwards you take turns, so everyone plays all three characters.

A pupil didn't understand the exercise.

A child doesn't want to play with their friend in the playground anymore.

I'm not invited to his/her birthday party.

A dog of a classmate just died.

A pupil is feeling completely discouraged from doing their homework.
